

Taking positive action to promote refugee rights: York University students' responses to President Trump's Executive Orders

WEDNESDAY MARCH 15, 2017

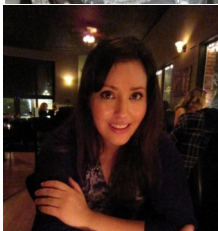

10AM—12PM

519 KANEFF TOWER, KEELE CAMPUS WITH LIVE STREAMING TO GLENDON CAMPUS, ROOM A220

Please join us for an inspiring roundtable to highlight positive ways to promote refugee rights:

Dina Taha, PhD candidate, Sociology and CRS student caucus co-chair: “Decolonizing methodologies - how students can be aware of positionality and power relations in research”

Kim Veller, Law Student, Osgoode Law School: “Research-a-thon to end the Safe Third Country Agreement”

Hawa Sabriye, Masters of Education candidate: “Promoting inclusive education for all in Dadaab refugee camp and the Toronto District School Board”

Ousman Conteh, International Development Studies and WUSC Glendon: “World University Service of Canada: refugee sponsorship and education initiatives”

Co-sponsored by the Centre for Refugee Studies Student Caucus and WUSC Glendon

Organized and moderated by Christina Clark-Kazak, CRS scholar and Associate Professor, Glendon.

Refreshments will be served.

This seminar can count towards requirements of the CRS diploma and certificate.

WUSC EUMC

CENTRE FOR REFUGEE STUDIES